

HOLY TRINITY MONASTERY SUMMER YOUTH PROGRAM CODE OF CONDUCT

As a participant of the Holy Trinity Monastery Summer Youth Program, I realize that I represent the Holy Trinity Monastery Summer Youth Program in all activities held at the Monastery, on the vehicles provided for transportation and anywhere else the Program may take the participants. My personal behavior will reflect the way people perceive the Monastery and the Russian Orthodox Church Abroad as a whole. I therefore shall strive to:

1. Attend all services, meals, lessons and obediences;
2. Respect all clergy, monastics and Program staff;
3. Treat with respect and love all people and facilities that I come into contact with;
4. Dress appropriately for all activities (no shorts on monastery property. In church: collared shirts, casual or dress pants, no jeans or sneakers);
5. Use appropriate language at all times;
6. Not use cellphones, iPods or video games while at the monastery;
7. Abide by the curfew set by the Holy Trinity Monastery Summer Youth Program (9:30 PM quiet time, 10:30 PM lights out);
8. Abide by all rules and regulations set forth by Holy Trinity Monastery;
9. Only use transportation provided by the Holy Trinity Monastery Summer Youth Program;

I realize that there are certain things that will not be tolerated at the Holy Trinity Monastery Youth Program and I promise not to indulge in any of the following activities:

1. I will not consume alcoholic beverages.
2. I will not use narcotics of any kind or any illegal drugs.
3. I will not verbally, physically or emotionally assault/abuse others.

The administration of the Holy Trinity Monastery Summer Youth Program reserves the right to inspect any facilities where program attendees reside and any of their personal belongings for the safety and wellbeing of all program participants.

As a participant of the Holy Trinity Monastery Summer Youth Program, I promise to abide by this Code of Conduct.
